

ELIZABETH FELT WAKEMAN
LAKE IN THE HILLS

Wakeman Law Group PC

As an attorney, Elizabeth Felt Wakeman works hard to ensure her clients are treated fairly and she strives to find an effective solution for each case. Outside of her law practice, she is dedicated to her community. She is a founding member of the Lake in the Hills Parks and Recreation Board, which was created to organize and oversee recreational activities within the village. Through the board, she has been instrumental in shaping policies and introducing standards for programming.

She also is a founding member of the People for Parks Foundation, a former Lake in the Hills Village board member and, as a small business owner, she has put countless hours toward various events and programming.
